Ana Key & the Underdogs

"Lyrical, satirical, slightly political, we try to put the 's' into punk, and entertain our audience with a mix of post punk, rock, blues and comedy.

Front woman Ana Key is a 'pretty bloody good singer' and energetic entertainer who gets the audience singing along to lyrics they've never heard before! Ole Nielsen on guitar plays simple and sensational musical grooves, Keith Joliffe is an awesome bass player with many years of experience, and Stephen Deakin is well known for his excellent drumming. The Underdogs plays a mixture of originals from Ana's 5 albums (Squeeze Records, Australia), the latest is called 'Future History' and has been produced by George Bruno, who also produced Lee Conway and Peter Allen.

What others have said:

"Fabulous band - distinctive style and songs with spunk. From the heart of a woman who sings about love and politics but puts a spotlight on the unmentionables like men doing the housework."

Joan Garvan – Author

"My favourite band" Dennis Mortimer – Artist and Venue Hire -The Bunker – Queanbeyan.

"Your band is fantastic" Zelda Smyth - Singer-Songwriter.
